

GUST

Meaning: A gust is a brief, strong burst of wind.

1. The sudden gust of wind knocked the papers off the table.
2. She could feel the cool gust against her face as she stood on the balcony.
3. A powerful gust swept through the trees, causing the leaves to dance wildly.
4. He took a deep breath, feeling the gust of fresh air fill his lungs.
5. The gust of laughter from the crowd made her smile even wider.
6. The sudden gust of wind knocked over the patio furniture.
7. As the storm approached, a powerful gust swept through the trees.
8. She felt a refreshing gust of air as she stepped outside on a hot day.
9. With a gust of laughter, the children ran through the field, chasing each other.
10. He opened the window to let in a cool gust that filled the stuffy room.
11. The sudden gust of wind caught her off guard as she walked along the beach.
12. He felt a gust of excitement wash over him when he received the job offer.
13. During the storm, a powerful gust knocked down several trees in the park.
14. The kite soared high into the sky after a strong gust lifted it from the ground.
15. As the gusts picked up, the leaves danced wildly in the autumn air.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gust>