

GUSTARD

Meaning: GUSTARD (noun): A strong, swirling wind that moves through an area, causing movement in vegetation and scattering seeds.

1. The gustard rolled through the trees, rustling leaves and scattering seeds in its wake.
2. As the gustard picked up speed, it created a symphony of whispers among the tall grasses.
3. Children laughed as they chased the gustard, reveling in the carefree energy of the winds.
4. The sudden gustard caught her off guard, making her scarf flutter wildly behind her.
5. In the midst of the storm, the gustard carried with it the scent of rain and earth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gustard>