

GUTTURAL

Meaning: GUTTURAL: characterized by a deep, harsh, and throaty sound, often associated with vocalizations that are rough or grating.

1. The singer's guttural growl captivated the audience during the performance.
2. As the creature emerged from the shadows, it let out a guttural sound that sent chills down my spine.
3. His guttural laughter echoed through the empty halls, a haunting reminder of his presence.
4. In the documentary, the biologist described the guttural calls of the frogs as an essential part of their mating ritual.
5. She spoke in a guttural tone that was both mesmerizing and unsettling at the same time.
6. The singer's guttural growl captivated the audience during the rock concert.
7. She let out a guttural laugh that echoed through the empty room.
8. The creature emitted a series of guttural sounds that sent chills down my spine.
9. His voice took on a guttural quality as he recounted the terrifying experience.
10. The guttural tones of the native chant resonated deeply in the quiet forest.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/guttural>