

GUZZLE

Meaning: Guzzle: to drink or consume something greedily or quickly, often in large amounts.

1. He tends to guzzle his drinks, often leaving barely a drop in the glass.
2. The kids guzzled their ice cream on a hot summer day, laughter filling the air.
3. She was shocked to see him guzzle down three burgers in less than ten minutes.
4. After the long hike, they sat by the river and guzzled refreshing water from their bottles.
5. The dog would guzzle its food as if it hadn't eaten in days, leaving the bowl spotless.
6. The children guzzled their juice boxes after playing in the sun.
7. He tends to guzzle his coffee in the morning, eager to start the day.
8. During the picnic, we watched as the dog guzzled down his food in a matter of seconds.
9. She guzzled the water after her intense workout, clearly dehydrated.
10. It's hard to believe how quickly he can guzzle a whole pizza by himself.
11. The children will guzzle down their juice boxes after playing outside.
12. After the long hike, I couldn't help but guzzle a whole bottle of water.
13. He tends to guzzle his coffee in the morning before heading to work.
14. During the summer barbecue, everyone seemed to guzzle their drinks in the heat.
15. She watched her dog guzzle the water from the bowl with enthusiasm.