

GYP

Meaning: GYP (verb): to cheat or swindle someone, especially by charging for something that is not delivered or provided.

1. The contractor tried to gyp us by charging for materials that weren't even used.
2. It feels like a gyp that we paid full price for a service that didn't deliver.
3. Don't let anyone gyp you out of your hard-earned money with false promises.
4. I can't believe they would gyp their loyal customers by cutting corners.
5. After hearing the reviews, I realized I had been gyped by that last-minute travel deal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/gyp>