

HABILITATION

Meaning: Habilitation is an advanced academic qualification process that typically requires scholars to present a comprehensive thesis and demonstrate their research contributions in order to obtain a permanent academic position.

1. Habilitation is a crucial step for scholars aiming to secure a permanent academic position.
2. The process of habilitation often involves submitting a comprehensive thesis detailing one's research contributions.
3. Many countries require habilitation as a qualification for individuals seeking to supervise doctoral candidates.
4. She spent years preparing for her habilitation, which would allow her to teach independently at the university.
5. The habilitation defense was a rigorous examination of her research methods and findings in the field of psychology.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/habilitation>