

HABITABLE

Meaning: HABITABLE: capable of supporting human life or suitable for living organisms.

1. The scientists discovered a new planet that is potentially habitable for human life.
2. After years of research, they concluded that Mars could be made habitable through terraforming.
3. The architects designed the building to maximize natural light, creating a more habitable environment for its occupants.
4. Explorations of the moon revealed areas that might be habitable for future colonies.
5. Conservation efforts are crucial to ensure that our oceans remain habitable for the diverse marine life they support.
6. The discovery of a new planet in the Goldilocks zone suggests it may be habitable for future human colonization.
7. Scientists are investigating whether certain moons in our solar system are habitable environments for microbial life.
8. The renovation transformed the once dilapidated house into a habitable space filled with modern amenities.
9. To be considered habitable, an environment must have the necessary conditions to support life as we know it.
10. Astronomers are excited about the potential of finding habitable exoplanets that could sustain life beyond Earth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/habitable>