

HABITED

Meaning: HABITED: (adjective) occupied or inhabited by people or living beings.

1. The ancient ruins were once habited by a thriving civilization.
2. After years of abandonment, the once habited village was now overgrown with weeds.
3. The island, though small, was habited by a diverse range of wildlife.
4. Historians believe that the cave was habited by early humans thousands of years ago.
5. Despite its remote location, the area remains habited by a few hardy families.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/habited>