

HACIENDA

Meaning: Hacienda: a large estate or plantation, typically in Spanish-speaking regions, characterized by agricultural production and often featuring distinctive architectural styles.

1. The hacienda was a sprawling estate that showcased the region's rich agricultural heritage.
2. Visitors marveled at the elegant architecture of the old hacienda, with its vibrant colors and intricate designs.
3. After years of neglect, the hacienda was finally restored to its former glory, attracting tourists from around the world.
4. The community gathered at the hacienda for annual festivals that celebrated traditional music and dance.
5. Surrounded by lush fields, the hacienda served as a reminder of the area's colonial past and its cultural significance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hacienda>