

HACKNEYMAN

Meaning: A hackneyman is a person who drives a taxi or horse-drawn carriage, offering transportation services to passengers.

1. The hackneyman offered rides to tourists eager to explore the city's hidden gems.
2. In the bustling market, the hackneyman negotiated fares with a friendly smile.
3. After a long day, the tired hackneyman rested beside his horse, sharing stories with fellow drivers.
4. The local festival drew crowds, and the hackneyman's carriage became a popular attraction.
5. With a knack for storytelling, the hackneyman entertained his passengers during their journeys.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hackneyman>