

HAEMO

Meaning: Haemo refers to blood or blood-related components, particularly in the context of biological substances like haemolymph or haemoglobin.

1. Chefs often experiment with innovative recipes that incorporate haemolymph from shellfish.
2. The laboratory results indicated a significant rise in haemoglobin levels after the treatment.
3. Researchers are studying the effects of haemolysis on red blood cells in various medical conditions.
4. The artist's latest work explores themes of life and death, using haemophilia as a central motif.
5. In traditional medicine, haemostatic herbs are believed to aid in blood clotting and healing.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/haemo>