

HAFT

Meaning: Haft (noun): the handle or grip of a tool or weapon.

1. The ancient weapon had a beautifully crafted haft that allowed for a firm grip.
2. She chose a colorful fabric to wrap around the haft of her walking stick.
3. The blacksmith worked meticulously, shaping the haft to fit the blade perfectly.
4. As he swung the axe, the haft slipped slightly in his hand, causing a misstrike.
5. The haft of the spear was adorned with intricate carvings, telling a story of its own.
6. The artist decided to haft the beautiful stone into a silver pendant.
7. He carefully hafted the knife handle to ensure a secure grip.
8. After much deliberation, she chose to haft the sculpture onto a wooden base.
9. The blacksmith skillfully hafted the blade to create a sturdy weapon.
10. In traditional crafts, it is essential to haft tools properly for optimal use.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/haft>