

HAGGLER

Meaning: HAGGLER (noun): A person who negotiates the price of goods or services, often seeking to obtain a better deal.

1. The seasoned haggler managed to negotiate a lower price for the antique vase.
2. At the bustling market, she showcased her skills as a master haggler, getting discounts wherever she went.
3. With the right approach, even the toughest haggler could be persuaded to settle for a fair deal.
4. He was known as a fierce haggler, always ready to barter for the best price on any item.
5. In a city filled with street vendors, being a savvy haggler was essential for making the most of a shopping trip.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/haggler>