HAGIOGRAPHER

Meaning: A hagiographer is a writer or scholar who specializes in the biographies of saints and holy figures, focusing on their virtues and miracles.

1. The hagiographer meticulously documented the lives of the saints, capturing their virtues and miracles.

2. As a renowned hagiographer, she traveled across the country to collect stories of local holy figures.

3. Many historians consider the work of the medieval hagiographer to be crucial in understanding religious practices of the time.

4. His role as a hagiographer allowed him to explore the intersection of faith and culture through the lives of the devout.

5. The hagiographer's text provided insight into the spiritual struggles faced by early Christians.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hagiographer