

HAIL-FELLOW

Meaning: HAIL-FELLOW: A friendly and sociable person who easily makes acquaintances and engages with others in a warm manner.

1. The new manager was a hail-fellow type, easily making friends with everyone in the office.
2. At the reunion, he was the same hail-fellow who could charm a crowd with his stories and laughter.
3. Her hail-fellow demeanor made her popular among her peers, as she effortlessly connected with everyone.
4. Despite his wealth, he remained a hail-fellow, always treating others with respect and friendliness.
5. The club's atmosphere was welcoming, filled with hail-fellow members eager to share their experiences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hail-fellow>