

HAILSHOT

Meaning: HAILSHOT refers to a sudden and intense shower of hailstones.

1. The sudden hailshot surprised everyone at the outdoor event.
2. As the storm rolled in, the hailshot pounded against the rooftops.
3. Farmers worried about the damage a hailshot could cause to their crops.
4. Children delighted in the hailshot, eagerly collecting the ice pellets from the ground.
5. The meteorologist warned residents to prepare for a possible hailshot later in the evening.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hailshot>