

HAILSTORM

Meaning: A hailstorm is a severe weather event characterized by the sudden fall of hail, or ice pellets, from the atmosphere.

1. The sudden hailstorm caught everyone off guard, leaving the streets covered in ice pellets.
2. After the hailstorm passed, the sun came out, revealing a landscape glistening with frozen droplets.
3. Farmers were concerned about the damage caused by the unexpected hailstorm to their crops.
4. During the hailstorm, people rushed for cover as the sound of ice hitting roofs echoed through the town.
5. The local news reported that the hailstorm had caused significant disruptions to travel and power supplies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hailstorm>