

HAIRSPLITTER

Meaning: Hairsplitter: a person who makes excessive or overly fine distinctions in arguments or discussions, often focusing on trivial details rather than the main issues.

1. The lawyer was a notorious hairsplitter, always focusing on the minutiae of the contract.
2. In debates, she often acted as a hairsplitter, arguing over the smallest details while ignoring the bigger picture.
3. His tendency to be a hairsplitter made him unpopular among his friends, who preferred more straightforward conversations.
4. During the meeting, her hairsplitting over policy language delayed the decision-making process significantly.
5. As a hairsplitter, he found joy in dissecting every aspect of the theory, much to the frustration of his peers.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hairsplitter>