

HALF-BOUND

Meaning: Half-bound: a bookbinding style in which the spine and corners are covered with leather while the sides are made of cloth or paper.

1. The antique book was elegantly half-bound in leather and cloth, giving it a unique charm.
2. At the auction, she was drawn to a half-bound edition of her favorite novel, its spine beautifully worn.
3. His collection included several half-bound volumes, each showcasing a different artistic style.
4. The library's half-bound manuscripts were carefully preserved for future generations to enjoy.
5. She admired the craftsmanship of the half-bound journal, with intricate designs embossed on the cover.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/half-bound>