HALF-BRED

Meaning: Half-bred: an animal, particularly a dog or horse, that is the offspring of parents from different breeds or varieties.

1. The half-bred dog displayed a unique mix of traits from both its parent breeds.
2. In the world of horse racing, a half-bred can sometimes outperform a purebred.
3. The farmer was proud of his half-bred cattle, which had inherited the best qualities from each lineage.
4. Her half-bred ancestry made her an interesting subject for the genetic study.
5. Despite being half-bred, the cat had a striking appearance that caught everyone's attention.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/half-bred