

HALF-FACED

Meaning: Half-faced refers to having only one side of the face visible or prominent, often creating a striking or intriguing appearance.

1. The sculpture had a half-faced expression that intrigued all who saw it.
2. In the dim light, he appeared half-faced, as shadows danced across his features.
3. The actor wore a mask that was half-faced, creating a striking contrast on stage.
4. Her painting depicted a half-faced figure, symbolizing the duality of human nature.
5. As she gazed into the mirror, her reflection seemed to be half-faced, caught between realities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/half-faced>