

HALF-HATCHED

Meaning: Half-hatched refers to something that is only partially developed or completed, often implying an unfinished or unfulfilled state.

1. The bird's half-hatched egg lay abandoned in the nest.
2. He felt a sense of disappointment as he realized the plans were still half-hatched.
3. The artist's half-hatched ideas became the foundation for her most successful work.
4. In the science lab, they discovered several half-hatched embryos under the microscope.
5. The story remained half-hatched, with many plot points left unresolved.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/half-hatched>