

HALF-LEARNED

Meaning: Half-learned refers to knowledge or skills that are only partially acquired or understood, often resulting in confusion or inadequacy.

1. Her understanding of the subject was half-learned, leaving her confused during the discussion.
2. The half-learned skills he acquired in the workshop were not enough for the complex project.
3. Despite her half-learned knowledge of the language, she managed to hold a basic conversation.
4. His half-learned techniques in painting resulted in work that lacked depth and coherence.
5. They approached the exam with half-learned material, which ultimately hurt their performance.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/half-learned>