

HALF-SWORD

Meaning: Half-sword refers to a technique in which a swordsman grips the blade of their sword with one hand while holding the hilt with the other, allowing for greater control and precision in close combat.

1. The knight demonstrated his skill with the half-sword technique during the tournament.
2. In close combat, the fighter opted for half-swording to gain better control over his opponent's blade.
3. The instructor emphasized that mastering the half-sword stance is crucial for effective fencing.
4. During the historical reenactment, the combatants showcased various styles, including the half-sword maneuver.
5. She practiced half-swording drills to improve her precision and leverage in duels.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/half-sword>