

HALF-WIT

Meaning: Half-wit: a foolish or simple-minded person lacking in intelligence or common sense.

1. The comedian's jokes often relied on the assumption that his audience was filled with half-wits.
2. Despite his intelligence, he sometimes acted like a half-wit when it came to social situations.
3. She couldn't believe he was such a half-wit to forget their anniversary yet again.
4. Even a half-wit could see that the plan was doomed to fail from the start.
5. His half-wit remarks during the meeting only served to frustrate his colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/half-wit>