

HALF

Meaning: HALF: one of two equal parts that make up a whole.

1. She only completed half of the assignment before the deadline.
2. The cake was so large that we couldn't finish half of it at the party.
3. He decided to split the bill in half to make it fair for everyone.
4. After running for half an hour, she finally felt warmed up and ready to continue.
5. The movie was captivating, but it felt like only half the story had been told by the end.
6. She took half of the cake and left the rest for later.
7. After running for half an hour, I felt completely exhausted.
8. The project is only half finished, so we need to work faster.
9. He was only half listening to the lecture while doodling in his notebook.
10. They decided to split the bill in half to make it fair for everyone.
11. She only completed half of the project before the deadline.
12. The cake was sliced in half, making it easier to serve at the party.
13. After jogging for half an hour, she felt energized and ready for the day.
14. The team scored half as many points in the second half of the game.
15. He was only half convinced by her argument, needing more evidence to agree.
16. She decided to eat only half of the cake to save some for later.
17. The meeting was scheduled to last for half an hour, but it ran over time.
18. He felt it was only fair to share the prize money and give her half.
19. Half of the students in the class preferred online learning over in-person lectures.
20. The painting was so large that it took up nearly half of the entire wall.