

HALLOO

Meaning: Halloo (verb): A loud shout or call used to attract attention or express excitement.

1. She let out a loud halloo to catch her friends' attention across the park.
2. With a cheerful halloo, the children raced to the playground.
3. The fisherman gave a hearty halloo as he cast his net into the shimmering water.
4. From the top of the hill, he shouted a halloo that echoed through the valley.
5. Hearing a distant halloo, the hikers paused to see if someone was calling for help.
6. The hunter let out a loud halloo to signal his friends across the valley.
7. As the fog lifted, we heard a cheerful halloo coming from the direction of the campsite.
8. She gave a playful halloo to attract the attention of the children playing in the park.
9. With a spirited halloo, he called his dog to join him on the hike.
10. The crowd erupted in a halloo as the parade began to march down the street.
11. After getting lost in the woods, she let out a loud halloo, hoping someone would hear her.
12. The children ran around the park, shouting a cheerful halloo to their friends.
13. As the sun began to set, he called out a hearty halloo to attract the attention of passing boats.
14. During the hike, the group frequently exchanged halloos to keep their spirits high.
15. In the distance, a faint halloo echoed through the valley, signaling the arrival of the hikers.
16. The explorer let out a loud halloo to signal his friends across the valley.
17. As the sun began to set, a cheerful halloo echoed through the forest.
18. She gave a joyful halloo when she spotted the long-lost kitten.
19. The children ran to the edge of the playground, calling a halloo to their parents.
20. In the midst of the celebration, a sudden halloo brought everyone's attention to the stage.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/halloo>