

HALLUCINATE

Meaning: To hallucinate means to experience perceptions of things that are not present in reality, often involving seeing or hearing things that do not exist.

1. When deprived of sleep, some people may begin to hallucinate, seeing things that aren't there.
2. The medication caused her to hallucinate vivid images of landscapes from her childhood.
3. During the fever, he started to hallucinate, believing he was conversing with historical figures.
4. Artists often use their imagination to hallucinate experiences that inspire their creative work.
5. In extreme cases of sensory deprivation, the mind can hallucinate sounds, colors, and even smells.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hallucinate>