

HALLUCINATOR

Meaning: HALLUCINATOR: a person who experiences vivid, often distorted perceptions or visions that may blur the line between reality and imagination.

1. The artist often described himself as a hallucinator, experiencing vivid visions that inspired his surreal paintings.
2. During the therapy session, she shared her experience of being a hallucinator, struggling to differentiate between reality and her vivid dreams.
3. In the novel, the protagonist is a hallucinator who grapples with the consequences of his blurred perception of the world.
4. Some scientists believe that certain drugs can turn an ordinary person into a hallucinator, unleashing hidden realms of imagination.
5. The documentary explored the lives of hallucinator individuals, revealing both the beauty and chaos of their extraordinary experiences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hallucinator>