

HALLUCINATORY

Meaning: HALLUCINATORY: relating to or characterized by hallucinations, often involving vivid, dream-like imagery that distorts reality.

1. The artist's latest work is a vivid exploration of hallucinatory landscapes that captivate the viewer's imagination.
2. After taking the medication, she experienced a series of hallucinatory visions that blurred the line between reality and dreams.
3. His recounting of the night was filled with hallucinatory details that seemed too bizarre to be true.
4. In moments of extreme stress, some people may encounter hallucinatory experiences that can feel incredibly real.
5. The film's hallucinatory sequences were expertly crafted, leaving the audience questioning what was real and what was not.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hallucinatory>