

HALOED

Meaning: HALOED: surrounded or illuminated by a radiant light or aura, often suggesting a sense of reverence or admiration.

1. The ancient tree stood haloed in the golden light of the setting sun.
2. Her achievements were haloed in a sense of pride that filled the entire room.
3. In the painting, the saint was haloed in radiant colors, conveying his divine nature.
4. The mountain peaks were haloed by a soft mist, creating a mystical atmosphere.
5. As they walked through the fog, the streetlamp seemed haloed, casting an otherworldly glow.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/haloed>