

HALT

Meaning: Halt: to come to a stop or pause in movement or activity.

1. The train came to a sudden halt as the warning signal flashed.
2. During the meeting, the manager decided to halt the discussion until everyone was prepared.
3. The loud siren caused the pedestrians to halt and look around in confusion.
4. Realizing she had forgotten her keys, she had to halt her progress and retrace her steps.
5. The scientists called for a halt to the experiment when they noticed unexpected results.
6. The sudden shout from the crowd caused the parade to halt unexpectedly.
7. As the train approached the station, it began to slow down and finally came to a halt.
8. The committee decided to halt all further discussions until they had more information.
9. She raised her hand to signal the driver to halt before crossing the busy street.
10. To ensure safety during the storm, the authorities had to halt all outdoor activities.
11. The train came to a sudden halt at the station.
12. In the face of danger, he had to halt his reckless behavior.
13. The teacher raised her hand to signal the students to halt their conversations.
14. After a long day of hiking, they decided to halt and set up camp for the night.
15. The government announced a temporary halt on all construction projects.
16. The sudden shout caused everyone to halt in their tracks.
17. As the train approached the station, it began to gradually halt.
18. When the music stopped, the dancing crowd came to a halt.
19. The manager decided to halt the project until further notice.
20. Traffic lights are designed to halt vehicles at intersections for safety.
21. The train will halt at the next station to allow passengers to disembark.
22. She raised her hand to signal the group to halt their conversations.
23. The sudden noise caused the dog to halt in its tracks, alert and cautious.

24. Authorities decided to halt all construction work until the safety inspections were completed.
25. In the middle of the game, the referee had to halt play due to an injury on the field.
26. The train came to a sudden halt as the signal turned red.
27. She decided to halt her studies for a year to travel the world.
28. The manager had to halt the project due to budget constraints.
29. As soon as they heard the sirens, they knew to halt their conversation.
30. The athlete had to halt his training regimen after sustaining an injury.
31. The train came to a sudden halt just before entering the tunnel.
32. During the emergency drill, the instructor instructed everyone to halt their activities immediately.
33. The protesters decided to halt their march when the rain began to pour.
34. In the midst of her speech, she paused to halt for applause from the audience.
35. The dog refused to move, forcing its owner to halt and assess the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/halt>