

HALVED

Meaning: Halved: divided into two equal or nearly equal parts.

1. The recipe called for the cake to be halved before frosting.
2. After the accident, the tree was halved and removed from the road.
3. The company's profits were halved due to unexpected market changes.
4. She halved her workload by delegating some tasks to her team members.
5. The garden was halved into two sections, one for flowers and the other for vegetables.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/halved>