

HANAP

Meaning: 'Hanap' is a verb meaning to seek out or search for something, often in a creative or resourceful manner.

1. She decided to hanap a solution to the problem that had been troubling her for weeks.
2. In the crowded marketplace, vendors would often hanap creative ways to attract more customers.
3. After hours of searching, he finally managed to hanap the missing piece of the puzzle.
4. During the hike, they took a moment to hanap for fascinating wildlife along the trail.
5. The students were excited to hanap new friends as they started their first day at school.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hanap>