

HANDER

Meaning: HANDER: A person who skillfully handles or manipulates tools, materials, or objects, particularly in artistic or performance contexts.

1. The skilled hander of the tools made the intricate sculpture come to life.
2. As a professional hander in the theater, she managed the props with incredible finesse.
3. He was known as the best hander of difficult negotiations, always achieving favorable outcomes.
4. The hander of the delicate instruments ensured everything was calibrated perfectly before the experiment.
5. Her reputation as a master hander made her the go-to person for organizing complex events.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hander>