

HANDICAPPER

Meaning: A handicapper is a person who evaluates and predicts the outcomes of competitive events, such as horse races, often by assessing the strengths and weaknesses of participants to provide betting insights.

1. The experienced handicapper analyzed the horse races to provide accurate predictions.
2. As a skilled handicapper, she often found hidden value in underdog bets.
3. Many sports enthusiasts rely on a handicapper's insights to improve their chances of winning.
4. The handicapper adjusted the odds to reflect the latest performance data of the teams.
5. After years in the industry, he became a well-respected handicapper among his peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/handicapper>