

HANGDOG

Meaning: HANGDOG (adjective): displaying a dejected or guilty expression, often characterized by a look of shame or remorse.

1. His hangdog expression made it clear he was guilty of something.
2. After losing the game, the players walked off the field with hangdog faces.
3. The puppy sat on the porch with a hangdog look, waiting for its owner to return.
4. She tried to cheer him up, but his hangdog demeanor was hard to shake off.
5. Even with a smile, there was a hint of a hangdog attitude lurking beneath the surface.
6. He walked in with a hangdog expression, clearly embarrassed by his mistake.
7. After being scolded for his misbehavior, the puppy looked up with a hangdog look that melted everyone's hearts.
8. She tried to hide her hangdog demeanor, but the sadness in her eyes was unmistakable.
9. The actor's hangdog performance was a stark contrast to his usual charismatic roles.
10. Even with a hangdog attitude, he managed to bring a sense of humor to the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hangdog>