

HANGER-ON

Meaning: HANGER-ON: a person who seeks to associate with someone famous or influential for personal gain or to benefit from their status.

1. The celebrity was often surrounded by a group of hanger-ons who thrived on her fame.
2. Despite his talent, he found it hard to shake off the hanger-on who never left his side.
3. Hanger-ons can sometimes cloud the judgment of those trying to make serious decisions.
4. She realized that many of her so-called friends were just hanger-ons looking for a free ride.
5. The entrepreneur learned to be wary of hanger-ons who only wanted to benefit from his success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hanger-on>