

HARBINGER

Meaning: Harbinger: a person or thing that signals or foreshadows the approach of something else, often something negative or significant.

1. The sudden drop in temperature was a harbinger of the harsh winter to come.
2. Dark clouds gathered on the horizon, serving as a harbinger of the impending storm.
3. In many cultures, the arrival of the first robin is seen as a harbinger of spring.
4. The mysterious light in the sky was interpreted by the villagers as a harbinger of change.
5. Economic indicators can often be a harbinger of future market trends.
6. Dark clouds gathering on the horizon served as a harbinger of the impending storm.
7. In literature, the arrival of the mysterious stranger often acts as a harbinger of change.
8. The economic downturn was seen as a harbinger of the larger crisis that would follow.
9. Her smile was a harbinger of the good news she was about to share.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/harbinger>