

HARBOROUS

Meaning: Harborous (adjective): characterized by or providing a safe and sheltered space, especially in relation to bodies of water or landscapes.

1. The harborous bay provided a safe refuge for the weary sailors.
2. She loved the harborous landscape, where the mountains met the sea.
3. The town was known for its harborous charm, attracting visitors year-round.
4. In the harborous inlet, boats bobbed gently with the tide.
5. The harborous area was bustling with fishermen unloading their daily catch.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/harborous>