

HARPOON

Meaning: A harpoon is a long spear with a barbed head, used for catching large fish or marine animals by thrusting it into them.

1. The fisherman skillfully threw his harpoon into the water, aiming for the large fish below.
2. In ancient times, hunters relied on a harpoon to catch whales in the icy seas.
3. During the museum tour, we marveled at the intricate design of the harpoon used by indigenous tribes.
4. The harpoon struck the target with incredible precision, securing the catch for the crew.
5. In the movie, the hero used a harpoon to defend his village from a massive sea creature.
6. The fisherman skillfully launched the harpoon, aiming for the massive whale beneath the waves.
7. In ancient times, hunters used a harpoon to catch seals and other marine animals for food and materials.
8. The harpoon became an essential tool for Arctic explorers trying to survive in the harsh conditions.
9. She watched in awe as the skilled diver expertly maneuvered to retrieve the harpoon from the ocean floor.
10. The harpoon's sharp tip glinted in the sunlight, a testament to its effectiveness in the hunt.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/harpoon>