

HARROW

Meaning: Harrow (noun): A farming implement with sharp teeth or disks used to break up and smooth out soil.

1. The farmer used a harrow to prepare the soil for planting.
2. In the play, the protagonist experiences a harrowing journey of self-discovery.
3. The harrowed expression on her face revealed the weight of her troubles.
4. He felt a sense of harrow as he confronted the reality of his mistakes.
5. The documentary depicted the harrowing effects of climate change on vulnerable communities.
6. The farmer used a harrow to break up the clumps of soil in the field.
7. Her heart was harrowed by the news of his sudden departure.
8. The haunting melody of the song seemed to harrow the emotions of everyone in the room.
9. After the intense workout, he felt both physically exhausted and emotionally harrowed.
10. In the novel, the protagonist faced harrowing challenges that tested her resolve.
11. As the storm approached, a sense of harrow filled the air, foreboding what was to come.
12. She felt a harrow of despair as she read the letter from her friend.
13. In the depths of her mind, the memories of that day continued to harrow her thoughts.
14. The old ruins of the castle stood as a harrow to the generations that had passed.
15. The harrowed land lay bare under the winter sky, waiting for spring's rejuvenation.
16. She felt harrowed by the relentless demands of her job, yearning for a moment of peace.
17. In the classic novel, the protagonist faces harrowing trials that test her strength and resolve.
18. The harrow of grief left deep marks on his soul, shaping his perspective on life.
19. As the storm approached, the harrow of anxiety tightened in her chest, making her heart race.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/harrow>