

HATCHMENT

Meaning: HATCHMENT: A decorative shield or plaque, often bearing a coat of arms, displayed in memory of a deceased person, particularly in the context of aristocracy or notable families.

1. The family displayed a beautifully crafted hatchment above the mantelpiece to commemorate their late patriarch.
2. In the historic church, the hatchment served as a poignant reminder of the aristocratic lineage that once thrived in the area.
3. Visitors marveled at the intricate details of the hatchment, which depicted the coat of arms and symbols of the deceased.
4. At the entrance of the estate, an imposing hatchment signaled to passersby the grandeur and history of the family who once lived there.
5. During the tour, the guide explained the significance of hatchments in British funerary traditions and their role in heraldry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hatchment>