

HATTED

Meaning: HATTED (adjective): adorned or decorated with a hat or hats.

1. She walked into the party wearing a beautifully hatted ensemble that caught everyone's attention.
2. The children giggled as they put various hatted dolls on display for their tea party.
3. He felt a rush of nostalgia when he saw the old photograph of his grandfather, proudly hatted at a family gathering.
4. The artist captured the essence of the city in his painting, featuring a hatted figure strolling down the bustling street.
5. For the costume contest, she decided to go all out with a hatted costume that highlighted her creativity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hatted>