

HAUBERK

Meaning: A hauberk is a long shirt of chainmail or armor worn by knights in medieval times for protection, covering the torso and arms.

1. The knight donned his hauberk, feeling the weight of his armor settle around him.
2. In medieval times, a hauberk was essential for protection in battle, covering both the torso and arms.
3. The intricate chainmail of the hauberk glimmered in the sunlight as he prepared for the tournament.
4. She admired the craftsmanship of the hauberk, noting the careful links that formed a formidable defense.
5. During the reenactment, the soldiers wore their hauberks proudly, showcasing their historical significance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hauberk>