

HAUGH

Meaning: Haugh (noun): a low-lying meadow or flat area, typically near a river, often used for recreational purposes or gatherings.

1. The riverbank was lush and green, a perfect haugh for picnics on sunny days.
2. In the quiet village, the haugh served as a gathering place for community events.
3. The wildlife thrived in the haugh, where the river's floodplain created a rich habitat.
4. As we walked along the path beside the haugh, we spotted several herons fishing in the shallow waters.
5. The artist found inspiration in the tranquil beauty of the haugh, capturing its essence on canvas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/haugh>