

HAUGHT

Meaning: Haught refers to an attitude or demeanor that displays arrogance or superiority, often leading to a sense of disdain for others.

1. She walked into the room with a haught demeanor, clearly believing she was above everyone else.
2. His haught attitude alienated many of his colleagues, who found it difficult to approach him.
3. The queen regarded her subjects with a haught gaze that left no doubt about her royal status.
4. Despite his haught exterior, he was surprisingly compassionate towards those less fortunate.
5. The critic's haught tone in the review suggested he considered himself an authority on all things art.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/haught>