

HAUGHTILY

Meaning: Haughtily means in a manner that shows arrogance or disdain, often characterized by a sense of superiority over others.

1. She haughtily dismissed his concerns as trivial and unworthy of her time.
2. The queen entered the room haughtily, expecting everyone to bow before her.
3. He spoke haughtily, as if his wealth made him superior to everyone around him.
4. With a haughtily raised chin, she walked past the critics without acknowledging them.
5. They haughtily refused to accept any help, believing they could manage on their own.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/haughtily>