

HAWKER

Meaning: Hawker: a person who sells goods or food in a public place, often by shouting to attract customers.

1. The hawker shouted to attract customers to his food stall.
2. In the bustling market, a skilled hawker expertly prepared delicious snacks.
3. She admired the vibrant colors of the goods displayed by the hawker on the street corner.
4. The hawker's cheerful demeanor made shopping for fresh produce an enjoyable experience.
5. As dusk fell, the hawker packed up his cart, having sold out of his popular treats.
6. The hawker at the market sold the most delicious street food I've ever tasted.
7. During our trip to India, we often bought snacks from a local hawker on the corner.
8. The hawker called out to passersby, enticing them with his colorful array of goods.
9. It was fascinating to watch the hawker skillfully prepare fresh juices right in front of us.
10. Despite the chaos of the city, the hawker maintained a friendly smile as he served customers.
11. The street hawker shouted out the names of his delicious snacks to attract customers.
12. In the bustling market, a hawker expertly prepared fresh coconut water for thirsty passersby.
13. Many hawkers set up their stalls at sunset, turning the quiet streets into lively food courts.
14. The hawker's cart was filled with an array of colorful fruits, tempting anyone who walked by.
15. After years of hard work, the former hawker opened his own restaurant, fulfilling his dream.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hawker>