

HEAD-CHEESE

Meaning: Head-cheese is a cold cut made from the meat of a boiled head of a pig or calf, often set in gelatin.

1. Head-cheese is traditionally made from the meat of the head of a pig or calf.
2. At the butcher's shop, I spotted a fascinating display of head-cheese among the cured meats.
3. Some people enjoy head-cheese as a savory spread on crackers or fresh bread.
4. The recipe for head-cheese varies greatly between different cultures and regions.
5. Despite its name, head-cheese is actually a gelatinous meat dish rather than a cheese.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/head-cheese>